Day-Break Series

THE STUDENT UNION BOARD DAY—BREAK SERIES will conclude its semester of entertainment on Tuesday April 10, when it will present Tom Abellera, an area caricature artist. Tom will be drawing caricatures of the students, beginning at 12:00 noon, in the Marian Centre Snack Bar.

At this time the SPECIAL EVENTS COMMITTEE would like to thank all of the students for their input and suggestions given on the Day-Break Series questionnaires. Comments such as these, "Need to move performances to snack bar or cafeteria"... "need to change the time of the series, most people do not get out of class until 12:00"... led to the change of the series to 12:00-1:00, in the Marian Centre Snack Bar. Other comments have conveyed to us what type of programming you most want to see in the series. We will keep these suggestions in mind when we program the series for next year. Again we thank you for all of your comments and ideas, and we continue encouragement of student input. We wish you good luck on your finals, and we look forward to another successful year of programming.

Classic melodrama comes To Avila's Goppert Theatre With 'Little Mary Sunshine'

(Please read in an appropriate melodramatic tone)

Plot, suspense, and a Colorado Inn bought on cookies! (pause) Cookies? (pause) Yes, I said cookies! Little Mary Sunshine's (Nancy Nail) Colorado Inn has its mortgage due; who will pay it for her? The Colorado Rangers (Rob Brown, Kevin Draves, John Hayes, Hayden Logston, Tim Moore, Peter Richardson, and Ray Thomas)? Captain "Big Jim" Warrington (Jim Wright)? The bevy of young beauties from East Chester Finishing School (Cory Brown, Rene Forslund, Connie Haworth, Carol Kopp, Amy Lowery, Christy Russell and Beth Van Horn)? The famous, in residence opera star Mme. Earnestine (Gerry Kinerk)? And what will happen to the torn love affair of Corporal Billy Jester (Mark Whorton) and Nancy Twinkle (Susanna Velasquez)? Will it all wash up or will it come out in the rinse cycle? What will happen to Chief Brown Bear (Danny Reardon), will he freeze out in his teepee? Will Fleet Foot (Lane Lucas) ever make it to the watering hole? And what is to become of dear Little Mary Sunshine's reputation if Yellow Feather (Andre Montgomery) ever catches up with her and "has his way" with her? Only one question remains, will you come to see Little Mary Sunshine, Avila's musical production on April 6, 7, and 13, 14?

This melodrama set at the turn of the century will be an intriguing night for all. Curtain is at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $6.00 for adults; Senior Citizens and non-Avila students are $5.00; faculty and staff receive the usual complimentary tickets. For reservations call the Box Office at 942-8408, or if on campus Ext. 290.

Easter: Festival of Spring; Mystery of Resurrection

Christians throughout the world anticipate the celebration of a spring festival...for Easter is derived from the Old English "eastre" which means spring festival. It's the joyful celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It's the mystery of Resurrection, life from death. A mystery that seems incredible to us. Yet, this mystery has been before us during the long winter months.

Just a few weeks ago our campus was like a fairyland as the sun shone on the ice laden trees. We have come to realize that the ice which was a source of death to many trees has brought life as the moisture has served as a fertilizer for the grass, flowers, trees, and many new signs of life now present on the campus. We also, experienced the darkness and cold caused by the power failure and anxiously awaited new life. The restoration brought us to a deeper appreciation of life and of the gifts of heat and light.

On Holy Saturday Christians gather in darkness to celebrate the Easter Vigil, before a single candle is lit, they stand in waiting...a people of faith, about to become a people of hope. They gather to celebrate a victory of love and a sharing of new life. Christ the Son of God is risen within. A new life for Jesus and for us, too. His promise has been fulfilled with each of us today, as it was fulfilled over 2000 years ago to those who witnessed life, suffering, crucifixion, and victory over death.

We witness many signs of spring as we prepare to celebrate this festival. The flowers are reminders of new life and hope. The lily is the flower of Easter and symbolizes joy and resurrection. Young children await the chickens and rabbits which symbolize fertility and birth. The Easter lamb is a symbol of the Risen Christ. In the butterflies we find the symbol of Christ's transformation. But, most of all our festival of spring is symbolized in light...the light of a candle...the sun...and Christ who is our light. Christ has experienced triumph over darkness. Let us celebrate this Easter, this festival of spring, with life, light, and transformation. May the Resurrection fill us with the knowledge of Christ's enduring presence among His people.

Letter emphasizes concern For unnecessary destruction

March 14, 1984

TO THE STUDENT BODY:

Regarding the bulletin board across from room 700 in the tunnel between Hodes and Marian Centre, there have been two incidences of BLATANT VANDALISM. We, the students, spend an average of 8-10 hours on the design, preparation and assembling of these bulletin boards. Not only do we have a personal commitment of time but also an investment of money involved. The bulletin boards are required for a grade in our class, and the UNNECESSARY DESTRUCTION takes away from the motivation of wanting to do the best job possible.

At the onset of this project we felt that there was no need to ask that the bulletin boards be left alone. Now we realize that we were wrong!

We feel that the bulletin boards brighten the tunnel, the Montessori children enjoy looking at them, and they are a necessary part of our teacher preparation program.

We are asking you as responsible students to respect our hard work and efforts, and in the future leave the bulletin boards alone!

Thank you.
